Hello, my name is Tucker Monticelli. I started my design career as an intern at Design on Edge and was then hired as a junior designer to later become lead designer. In early 2021 I was hired by The Abbi Agency as Art Director. My educated and skilled approach to solving creative problems helps refine and perfect client solutions and brand challenges. I am skilled in editorial design, web design, branding, web, AI, VR, AR, and campaign development.
